

ARTHUR FURST, Ph.D., Sc.D., D.A.T.S.

December 1993

Dr. Furst, Toxicologist and Distinguished University Professor, Emeritus at University of San Francisco, received his A.B. and M.A. in Chemistry and Math from University of California, Los Angeles, California and his Ph.D. in Chemistry from Stanford University. Having served in several different professorial capacities at Stanford, University of San Francisco and the University of California, Los Angeles, Dr. Furst retired from academia in 1980.

He is the Senior Member of the Neo-Life/Golden Products Scientific Advisory Board. Of the many honors Dr. Furst has accumulated through the years, the most recent is the 1992 UCLA Alumni Award for Excellence in Professional Achievement.

Dr. Furst is an internationally recognized cancer researcher. Since 1981, he has been a full time consultant in toxicology and chemistry to various industries and government agencies. He continues to be a guest lecturer at a number of universities throughout the world. He also continues to be an invited speaker at many worldwide symposia, and at Gordon Conferences.

He is a member of 15 scientific societies and Fellow of five societies. He has authored over 250 publications in the fields of cancer research, organic synthesis, psychopharmacology and toxicology. His biography is listed in Who's Who in the West, Who's Who in America and Who's Who in the World.

.....
By-line: Toxicologist and Distinguished Professor Emeritus, UCSF. Member of 15 scientific societies. Fellow of five societies. 1992 recipient of the Outstanding Professional Achievement Award, U.C.L.A. Alumni Association.